10 (HONORABLE LARRY A. BURNS)

11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 GENARO SMITH-BALTIHER,

15 Defendant.
16

Case No.: 07CR3161-LAB

STATEMENT OF FACTS AND MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION

17
18 I.

19 STATEMENT OF FACTS

20 On June 4, 2007, Genaro Smith-Baltiher was arrested by the San Diego Police Department
21 and referred to the custody of United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement officials. On July 22 5, 2007, Mr. Smith-Baltiher waived indictment and was arraigned on an information charging him 23 with two counts of illegal entry in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1325 in Case No. 07CR1749-LAB. On 24 August 2, 2007, Magistrate Judge Barbara Lynn Major ordered Dr. Bruce Yanofsky to evaluate 25 Mr. Smith-Baltiher's competency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241.

26 Dr. Yanofsky prepared a detailed report dated August 22, 2007. See Forensic Psychological 27 Examination at 16, attached hereto as Defense Exhibit B. The report confirmed that while in custody
28 at the Metropolitan Correctional Center and Alvarado Hospital since his arrest in this case, Mr. Smith-

1 Baltiher has undergone ongoing treatment for Schizophrenia, Polysubstance Abuse, and a seizure
2 disorder, which has involved the daily administration of a variety of antidepressant, anti-psychotic, 3 and anti-seizure medication. Exh. B at 8. In his qualified conclusion that Mr. Smith-Baltiher was 4 competent at the time to stand trial, Dr. Yanofsky cautioned that Mr. Smith-Baltiher is not likely to 5 be consistently competent at all times in the future:

6 Thus, based on the analyses of these six factors along with the clinical information 7 available, I opine that at this time Mr. Smith is competent to proceed to trial as he 8 is able to fully cooperate with counsel, disclose meaningful information, and testify 9 in meaningful ways on his own behalf, all of which will lead to the development of 10 a defense. I would like to highlight the fact that due to Mr. Smith's condition and 11 based on past clinical history it is likely that his competency may be at times
12 jeopardized by an exacerbation of symptoms. Episodes of disorientation and altered 13 consciousness have been present even while Mr. Smith has taken medication. These 14 episodes appear to be associated with seizure activity, increased stress, loss of sleep, 15 or even drug activity. They have managed medically in the past, but have lead to 16 periods of deterioration in functioning. This situation may occur in the course of a 17 legal process and thus should be kept in mind. If such an episode should occur 18 Mr. Smith may require further evaluation and perhaps medical attention before he 19 is able to continue. However, as noted at present time he is stable and thus 20 competent to proceed.

21 Exh. B at 16-17.

22 Based on Dr. Yanofsky's evaluation, on August 30, 2007 Judge Major found that Mr. Smith-
23 Baltiher was competent to proceed and scheduled a change of plea hearing. On October 11, 2007, 24 Mr. Smith-Baltiher pled guilty to an amended two-count information before Judge Major, and was 25 set for acceptance of the plea and sentencing in this Court on November 13, 2007. On that day, this 26 Court granted a continuance of the hearing to November 19, 2007 at defense counsel's request. On 27 November 19, 2007, prior to acceptance of his former plea of guilty by this Court, Mr. Smith-Baltiher 28 requested to withdraw his plea of guilty and this Court, granting his request, scheduled him for a jury trial beginning December 18, 2007.

On December 3, 2007, the Court granted the government motion to dismiss the amended information in Case No. 07CR1749-LAB, Mr. Smith-Baltiher was arraigned on a one-count indictment charging him with violating 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a) and (b) - Deported Alien Found in the United States and a jury trial was scheduled for January 8, 2008, with a motions in limine hearing set for the preceding afternoon. On January 7, 2008, at the beginning of the motions in limine hearing, defense counsel notified the Court that Mr. Smith-Baltiher had expressed a desire to waive his right

1 to a jury trial and to proceed the next day with a bench trial. See January 7, 2008 Motion Hearing
2 Transcript at 2, attached hereto as Defense Exhibit C. The Court then inquired of Mr. Smith-Baltiher 3 whether he was in fact willing to waive his right to a jury trial and proceed with a bench trial, but 4 contrary to defense counsel's representation that Mr. Smith-Baltiher had been advised of his trial 5 rights and that he desired a bench trial, Mr. Smith-Baltiher expressed bewilderment about the 6 decision:

7 THE COURT: IS THAT WHAT YOU WANT TO DO? HAVE YOU MADE THE 8 DECISION TO DO THAT?

9 THE DEFENDANT: GO TO TRIAL?

10 THE COURT: YES, GO TO TRIAL IN FRONT OF ME RATHER THAN IN 11 FRONT OF THE JURY.

12 THE DEFENDANT: WHICH ONE WOULD BE BEST?

13 Exh. C at 3.

14 The Court then explained to Mr. Smith-Baltiher the differences between a jury trial and a 15 bench trial, and that he also had a right to waive a trial altogether and plead guilty. Exh. C at 3-7.
16 Mr. Smith-Baltiher thanked the Court and declared "I plead guilty right now." Exh. C at 7. A plea
17 colloquy followed during which Mr. Smith-Baltiher expressed reservations about his citizenship 18 status, and the Court ultimately accepted his plea of guilty. Exh. C at 15, 28. Mr. Smith-Baltiher was 19 scheduled for sentencing on March 24, 2008, and the sentencing hearing has since been continued 20 twice pursuant to a joint motion by the parties, with the sentencing hearing currently scheduled for 21 May 5, 2008 at 9:30 a.m.

22 Mr. Smith-Baltiher has executed a sworn declaration in which he confirms that on January 23 7, 2008 he felt over-medicated, disoriented, and unable to think clearly. See Declaration of Genaro
24 Smith-Baltiher, attached hereto as Defense Exhibit A. It was not Mr. Smith-Baltiher's desire to waive 25 his right to trial, and he requests leave of this Court to withdraw his plea of guilty and to proceed to 26 trial. Exh. A.

1 II.

2 MOTION TO WITHDRAW PLEA OF GUILTY

3 Mr. Smith-Baltiher requests that the Court allow him to withdraw his plea of guilty and to 4 proceed to trial. Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure allows for the withdrawal of a 5 guilty plea after the court's acceptance of the plea, but before it imposes sentence, if the defendant
 6 can show a "fair and just reason" for requesting the withdrawal. FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(d)(2)(B). The 7 fair and just reason standard "is applied liberally" and does not require a defendant to demonstrate 8 "that his plea is invalid in order to meet his burden of establishing a fair and just reason for 9 withdrawal." United States v. Davis, 428 F.3d 802, 805, 807 (9th Cir. 2005) (quoting United States 10 v. Ortega-Ascanio, 376 F.3d 879, 884 (9th Cir. 2004)). Rather, a defendant may demonstrate a fair 11 and just reason for plea withdrawal by showing that the unforeseen reason "plausibly could have 12 motivated his decision to plead guilty. Nothing in Rule 11(d)(2)(B) requires a defendant to show 13 more in order to satisfy the 'fair and just reason' standard." Davis, 428 F.3d at 808 (emphasis in 14 original).

15 Mr. Smith-Baltiher's inability to think clearly during the motions in limine hearing on 16 January 7, 2008 contributed to his unexpected decision to plead guilty on the eve of trial. See Exh.
 17 A. As Dr. Yanofsky cautioned several months earlier, Mr. Smith-Baltiher is prone to having his 18 competency temporarily jeopardized by an exacerbation of symptoms of his medical condition. Exh.
 19 B at 17. Dr. Yanofsky's opinion that such episodes of incompetency may be associated with seizure
 20 activity, increased stress, and loss of sleep, is consistent with Mr. Smith-Baltiher's sworn declaration 21 that he had been experiencing insomnia and increased anxiety before the day of the in limine hearing.
 22 Exh. A.

23 This Court need not make a finding on whether Mr. Smith-Baltiher was temporarily 24 incompetent when he gave his plea, nor whether his plea was invalid. See Davis, 428 F.3d at 807.
 25 For Mr. Smith-Baltiher to be allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty, it is sufficient that this Court find 26 that his mental state on January 7, 2008 "plausibly could have motivated his decision to plead guilty."
 27 Id. at 808 (emphasis in original). Given his well-documented history of mental illness and 28 Dr. Yanofsky's conclusion that his competency is likely to be jeopardized at times, coupled with his

1 sworn declaration describing his inability to think clearly on January 7, 2008, as well as his insomnia
2 and anxiety leading up to the hearing, this Court should find that the “liberally applied” fair and just 3 reason standard has been met. Mr. Smith-Baltiher should be allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty
4 pursuant to Rule 11(d)(2)(B).

5 V.

6 CONCLUSION

7 For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Smith-Baltiher respectfully requests that this Court allow him 8 to withdraw his plea of guilty and proceed to trial.

9 Respectfully submitted,
